

The following is a schedule that will be followed in the case of a determination to go FULL DISTANCE for a week or more at a time. Please note, this schedule expects students to be online between 2 and 3 hours per day, with potential home assignments to complete after the leave the meeting. This means that students could be working on classes for up to 5 hours per day. Some instructors may allow students to leave their scheduled Meet session early if they are working on independent projects, however instructors will always be available for their full allotted time and they will expect to see students daily.

The following is a schedule that will be followed in the case of a determination to go FULL DISTANCE for a week or more at a time. Please note, this schedule expects students to be online between 2 and 3 hours per day, with potential home assignments to complete after the leave the meeting. This means that students could be working on classes for up to 5 hours per day. Some instructors may allow students to leave their scheduled Meet session early if they are working on independent projects, however instructors will always be available for their full allotted time and they will expect to see students daily.
